The Other Side of the Harbor - Matthew Ohlson 2007-02

After graduating from college, author Matthew A. Ohlson returns to his hometown to be a fourth-grade teacher. Ignoring offers to work in the private sector or to teach in safer, more prestigious suburban schools, he returns to his old neighborhood to teach in one of Boston's most troubled schools. The Other Side of the Harbor follows the obstacles Ohlson and his students encounter, both in and out of the classroom. The twenty-eight students that make up the class of room 213 initially greet Ohlson with a display of bedlam that would send most teachers running in the opposite direction. But this is where he wants to be-and he knows these impressionable young minds need him-so he perseveres. By the end of the year, the kids become as much a part of Ohlson's family as his own flesh and blood. A fictional story based on true events, The Other Side of the Harbor showcases Ohlson's passion for education, yet brings to light the harsh realities of the Boston streets. Hilarious, inspiring, and heart-breaking, the stories of The Other Side of the Harbor encourage a new appreciation for the educational system and those striving to make it better.

Commencement - Clay McLeod Chapman 2010-11-15

Synopsis: One actress plays three women drawn together in the grim aftermath of a high school shooting - the mother of the shooter (staph infection), one of the shooter's victims (early release), and the mother of that victim (keynote speaker). It is a deep exploration of the lives of three women that, according to SEE Magazine ..". will leave you wringing your hands in helpless empathy." "Ripped me into little tiny shreds, but I would see it again and again." - Time Out New York (CRITICS PICK) "A truly amazing evening of storytelling that is equal parts brilliant writing and powerful performance... "Commencement" looks into the heart of tragedy and stabs it." - NYTheatre.com (CRITICS PICK) "Wow. This is what theater is all about." - Canadian Broadcasting Company (5 out of 5 stars) (Best of Fest) "Commencement is strong stuff and frequently moving." - Stage Directions Magazine

Latino in America - Soledad O'Brien 2009-10-06
The definitive tie-in to the CNN documentary series Latino in America, from former top CNN anchor and special correspondent Soledad O'Brien. Following the smash-hit CNN documentary Black in America, Latino in America travels to small towns and big cities to illustrate how distinctly Latino cultures are becoming intricately woven into the broader American identity. As she reports the evolution of Latino America, Soledad O'Brien explores how tens of millions of Americans with roots in 21 different countries form a community called "Latino" and recalls her own upbringing and what she's learned about being a Latino in America.

The Drama Club - Denise J Smith 2021-09-13
Welcome back! The Drama Club continues as everyone prepares for Graduation. They ended, Senior Year at the winter dance, where things took a wildly unexpected turn for the worse. Melanie found herself choosing between her new love, Gabrielle, and a forbidden love with her teacher, Ms. Bloom. Josh joined a White Lives Matter group that quickly led him down a path of self-destruction as he pushed his girlfriend of six years, Crystal, into the loving arms of Jesuse.

Toni, Lee Wallace High's DIVA, was on the quest for love and thought he found it after meeting, James, but was shockingly surprised when things became less romantic and more sinister.

Graduation will force everyone to confront their villains inward and outward as they navigate through the new chapters in their lives. And while they try to solve a murder of one of their own, yes, MURDER, things become a lot more complicated than they anticipate! So buckle in and get ready for another wild ride with, The Drama Club!
