In October 1934, the Chinese Communist Army found itself facing annihilation, surrounded by hundreds of thousands of Nationalist soldiers. Rather than surrender, 86,000 Communists embarked on an epic flight to safety. Only thirty were women. Their trek would eventually cover 4,000 miles over 370 days.

Under enemy fire they crossed highland awamps, climbed Tibetan peaks, scrambled over chain bridges, and trudged through the sands of the western deserts. Fewer than 10,000 of them would survive, but remarkably all of the women would live to tell the tale.

Wolf Shifter Broderick is stuck

looking after his three younger brothers and a Collar-less Shifter who is driving him crazy, but he's putting up with it for Joanne, the human woman he, for some reason, wants to impress. Joanne Greene, while grateful to Broderick for rescuing her sister, doesn't know what to make of him. She's been a loner most of her life, better able to relate to computers and coding than to people, until she's drawn into the world of the Shifters. Broderick is everything Joanne is not—a fighter and a tracker, from a rough-and-tumble family, better at working with his hands than understanding the netherworld of Joanne's computer programmer life. Broderick is also extremely protective, wanting to draw her under his care as he does everyone else. When Broderick is captured, mistaken for a Guardian, it's Joanne who figures out that hackers are after the Guardian Network, the database that holds the deep secrets of Shifters past and present. Strangely Broderick now holds the key to stopping the hackers from releasing deadly danger on the Shifters, and Joanne with her coding skills is the only one who can help him. A short novel of the Shifters Unbound series. Events take place after Bear Attraction.
