The Five Secrets of an Exceptional Leader - Stan Toler 2011-01-01

Few leaders think of themselves as natural leaders, and all of them tend to fall into one of three groups: those whose leadership is taken for granted; budding leaders who are relatively untested on the job; and untrained leaders who, regardless of their job experience, have found themselves suddenly thrust into a leadership position and feel very insecure. The Five Secrets of an Exceptional Leader calms the fears and boosts the confidence of all untrained leaders and serves as a refresher course for seasoned leaders. Written as an engaging, down-to-earth dialogue, this book uses conversations between a young businessman and retired man who has led in church, business, and philanthropy. Their one-on-one dialogue reveals proven, common-sense leadership principles and instruction on how to lead holistically with your heart and soul. The result is leadership excellence.

Recreatable - Kevin Scott 2014-02-01

ReCreatable begins with the story of a glass baking dish, the delectable aroma of tantalizing brownies, and an unseen defect that turns the promise of something delicious into a minor disaster, leaving glass fragments and brownies irretrievably intermingled. Both the dish and brownies are irrevocably lost. The implications for us are inescapable: created by God to reflect his glory and for his pleasure, we have been broken by sin to the point that we are completely useless to accomplish the purpose for which we were made. But, unlike the shattered brownie dish that gets discarded as worthless, God takes the shards of our lives and does the miraculous. He does not simply fit us back together. He takes those splinters of our destruction and uses them to re-create us: complete, restored, redeemed, and fitted to do and be all that he ever intended for us. ReCreatable leads us progressively through the impact of the creative genius of God in our lives. It points us to the reality of restored relationships, the resurrection of our role as true reflectors of God's glory, and the revolutionary life that can be ours when we learn to be true disciples—re-created to live well for God.

Who's Holding Your Ladder? - Samuel R. Chand 2016-02-16

Most organizational mistakes can be avoided, or certainly minimized, by understanding one principle: The most important decision you will ever make as a leader is selecting the leaders around you. The fact is, the people who have brought you this far, however well-meaning, may not be the right people to take you into the future. Who's Holding Your Ladder? reminds us that the height and fulfillment of any visionary leader are contingent on whoever is holding his or her ladder. With Dr. Chand's help, you will discover... That without a ladder-holder, you can climb only to a certain level. That with the right ladder-holders, you can go much higher. That as organizational vision increases, the need for another type of ladder-holder increases. The essential qualities all first-rate ladder-holders must possess. The fact that leaders and managers both play critical roles; however, knowing the difference between these roles will lead to proper people placement. How to turn ladder-holders into ladder-climbers. "Chand's keen insights and vast leadership exposure have prepared him well for forecasting and setting leadership directions." —John Maxwell
