Christmas Music for Beginning Piano -
Robert Anthony 2020-08-23
After releasing Christmas Music for Easy Piano, which is a tool I use to train my piano students to be able to play common left-hand chords on piano while learning material that makes them want to practice, I have been getting requests for something easier and more geared towards an absolute beginner... So, I created: Christmas Music for Beginning Piano! In this book, you will find two arrangements of each song, plus a simple lead-sheet (melody with chord symbols). Both arrangements split the melody between both hands, and nearly all of the songs are arranged so that the hands do not change position. The first arrangement of each piece is the melody only and has a diagram showing where to place the hands on the keyboard, while the second arrangement adds harmony, making the arrangement self-accompanying. Lyrics are not included in these arrangements, but the lead-sheet arrangement contains the first verse or chorus fitting the arrangement. I did it this way for two reasons: 1. This is not a sing-along song book, but a book for beginning piano players looking for familiar music that they can play right away. 2. I did not want the clutter of the lyrics on the piano arrangements. I lead-sheet arrangements with lyrics for convenience. Songs: Angels From the Realms of Glory, Angels We Have Heard on High, Auld Lang Syne, Away in a Manger, The Boar's Head Carol, Bring a Torch, Carol of the Bells, Christ Was Born on Christmas Day, Coventry Carol, Deck the Halls, Ding Dong! Merrily on High, The First Noel, The Friendly Beasts, From Heaven Above to Earth I Come, Gesù Bambino, Go Tell It on the Mountain, God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen, Good Christian Men Rejoice, Good King Wenceslas, Hallelujah Chorus, Hark! The Herald Angels Sing, Here We Come A-Wassailing, The Holly and the Ivy, It Came Upon the Midnight Clear, Jesu, Joy of Man's Desire, Jingle Bells, Jolly Old St. Nicholas, Joy to the World, Noel! Noel!, O Christmas Tree, O Come All Ye Faithful, O Come, O Come, Emmanuel, O Holy Night, O Little Town of Bethlehem, Ode to Joy, Once in Royal David's City, Silent Night, Toyland, The Twelve Days of Christmas, Up On the Housetop, We Three Kings, We Wish You a Merry Christmas, What Child is This?, While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks.

Hallelujah - 2009-02

(Easy Piano). Sheet music. Hymns and Spirituals for Those Who Have Never Played Music: Play Piano, Xylophone, Melodica, Kalimba, Keyboard by Letter. - Helen Winter
 You have never played music before or you cannot read sheet music, but you want to play famous and inspiring hymns and spirituals. Don't worry! You will begin to play right away. We made our pictured sheet music as simple as possible. You'll play by letter-coded circles. No musical staff or notes. The easy-to-play songs and melodies were adapted especially for beginners. The melodies have been transposed to one octave and simplified. Also, the letter-coded notations have been added and complex notations and symbols have been reduced. Such simplification makes it possible for people to play melodies, especially those who can't read music or who have never played music before. Additionally, it makes it possible to play on the most primitive instruments, such as a child's xylophone, bell sets, chime bars, and even a kid's piano. You will be able to begin to play right away if the keys of your instrument have letter notations on the keys. Some percussion instruments already have them. They are printed by suppliers (for example, a simple xylophone or kalimba). For other instruments, you just need to get and apply stickers with letter notations. For most songs, just 8 stickers will be enough. You can create your own using post-it notes or stickers, or you can buy them. Write the notes with a marker - A B C D E F G and C of the next octave. Apply the stickers correctly. Find note C. Now apply the stickers alphabetically starting with C, then D E F G A B, and next C. Most songs from this book are possible to play on an 8-note instrument, so a one-octave instrument, for example, a 10-key kalimba, 8-key xylophone, small tongue drum, handbells, or even toy piano will be enough. But some songs here involve the neighboring with the main octave notes. For these songs, you will need a 2-3 octave instrument. It might be the kalimba with 17 keys, 15+ key xylophone, melodica, synthesizer, or piano. All of them need to have special note stickers for beginners. These transparent removable stickers are available on Amazon for 88/61/54/49 key instruments and they can really help in your musical experience. We don't use most musical symbols and notations here: the length of the notes, bars, beams, etc. This book is aimed at your first musical experience no matter what age you are. There is no wrong time or not enough preparation to take up spiritual pursuits. Table of Contents

Rejoice in the Lamb, Op. 30 - 2004-06 (BH Large Choral). for SATB with SATB solos and organ Imogen Holst orchestrated the work for wind quintet, percussion, organ (ad lib) and strings (1952), and there is also a version for SSAA and organ arranged by Edmund Walters (1966) Text: Christopher Smart Publisher: Boosey & Hawkes Difficulty level: 3 One of Britten's most popular and performed works in this genre, Rejoice in the Lamb was written for the 50th anniversary of St. Matthew's church, Northampton in 1943. The remarkable vicar, Walter Hussey, was a great patron of the arts. His vision for St. Matthew's and later for Chichester Cathedral, where he moved to become Dean, is one of the most fascinating stories in the history of the Anglican Church in the last century. Britten called his work a Festival Cantata and it is structured with choral and solo movements. The text by the supposedly mad Christopher Smart (1722-1771) is part of a poem called Jubilate Agno which he composed in a mental asylum having been committed there by his father-in-law for apparent religious mania. He died in a debtors' prison. It was W.H. Auden who brought the poem to Britten's attention. It is easy to see why Britten was so attracted to Smart's poem. It has great colour, drama, bizarre imagery, and the central issue of the individual against the crowd, or against authority, was one to which Britten was to return repeatedly in his works. Britten had developed a deep interest in Purcell's music at this time and had made keyboard realisations of accompaniments for a number of songs which he performed with Peter Pears. Purcell's influence can easily be heard in the Hallelujah sections. The challenges in this work are many and varied though the difficulty level is not great overall. It is an ideal concert work and is popular with performers and audiences alike. Practical issues include really quiet singing while projecting the voice at the start; dealing with the rhythmic complexities of the first quick section ('Let Nimrod the mighty hunter') and getting the most out of the words and the dynamic contrasts here; the unanimity of the dotted rhythms in the Hallelujah sections; the fielding of four soloists who can put across the character of these zany movements (the cat, the mouse, flowers); the realisation of the depth of passion in the 'For I am under the same accusation as my Saviour' section; the brilliance of the final quick section with all the bizarre musical instrument rhymes; and finally realising the 'stillness and serenity' of the slow music before the final Hallelujah. There is much to consider and much devil in the detail. However, the work is emphatically worth any amount of effort to realise Britten's inspiration. Duration: 17 minutes Paul Spicer, Lichfield, 2011

Hallelujah Junction - John Adams

' Sometimes I liken the creative act to that of being a good gardener. The musical material itself, the harmonies, rhythms, the timbres and tempi, are seeds you have planted. Composing, bringing forth the final formal arrangement of these elements, is often a business of watching them grow, knowing when to nourish and water them and when to prune and weed.' A book unlike anything ever written by a composer, part memoir and part description of the creative process, Hallelujah Junction is an absorbing journey through the musical landscape of John Adams, one of today's most admired and frequently performed composers. A musician of enormous range and technical command, Adams has built a huge audience worldwide through the immediacy and sincerity of his music, such as his Pulitzer prize-winning memorial for the September 11 attack On The Transmigration of Souls. Hallelujah Junction isn't so much an autobiography as a fascinating journey through the musical landscape of his life and times, centred around the three highly controversial operas based on social and political issues he has written in the past twenty-five years - Nixon in China, The Death of Klinghoffer and, most recently, Dr Atomic.

Hallelujah - Leonard Cohen 2015-06 (Harp). This sheet music includes Sylvia Woods' harp arrangement of Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah." It can be played by harpists of all levels. The first verse is easy, and each subsequent verse gets a bit more advanced. Includes performance notes.
