Deeds of the Saxons - Widukind (of Corvey) 2014-12

Widukind, a monk at the monastery of Corvey in Saxony during the middle third of the tenth century, is known to posterity through his Res gestae Saxonicae, a rich account of the Saxon people and the reigns of the first two rulers of the Ottonian dynasty. Widukind provides information that can be found in no other source. His close relationship with the royal court enabled him to provide an "insider's" view of people and events.
