Miscellaneous Short Bible Studies - William Flewelling 2023-03-19
These are bible studies of a limited scale, developed and led by the author with two of the congregations he served. The first congregation was in Mantua OH in the late 1970s, from which the first three bible studies arose: Ruth, Lamentations, and The Infancy Narratives. The second congregation was in New Martinsville WV from 1998 through 2003, these being done in a slightly different style: Psalms of Ascent, Selected Psalms, The Speech of Stephan, Encountering God, Matthew 5 and Matthew 6 & 7. I sought to bring a serious, somewhat scholarly approach to the study of the bible among those congregation members who chose to attend. This revisiting of those studies prove once again their value to me. I hope they prove to be so for you as well.

Hear the Word of the Lord - Martin Connell 2015-09-01 In Hear the Word of the Lord: The Lectionary in Catholic Ritual, Martin Connell offers an in-depth understanding of the Roman Catholic Lectionary for Mass. He presents a theology of the Word of God that is grounded in both ancient and ongoing liturgical practices of hearing and proclaiming the Word in the Church.

Steeped in the history and composition of the New Testament, Connell traces the development of the Lectionary from the letters of St. Paul to the current Lectionary, demonstrating the way in which a listening assembly serves as an essential component of both our experience and our understanding of Scripture. In addition, Connell presents a comprehensive look at the structure of the Lectionary and its role in the liturgical year.

Advent of the Savior -

Stephen J. Binz 2016

Advent is the season in which we reread and relive the experience of ancient Israel as it longed for the coming of the Messiah. It is also a time to reflect on the infancy narratives of Jesus which have enriched the lives of believers through the centuries. As an extension of Israel's longing for the Messiah, the infancy accounts serve as overtures to the writings of the evangelists, and stand as bridges connecting the Old and New Testaments.

Advent of the Savior focuses on this connection of past to present so that we may deepen our longing for the Messiah's coming again and ask God in our own day to be Emmanuel, "God with us." The infancy narratives of Matthew and Luke express the basic truths about the divine and human mystery of Jesus Christ. Advent of the Savior reminds us that it is through these truths that we are called to move from longing for our Savior to hope in his coming again.

Crosscurrents of Children's Literature -

John Daniel Stahl 2007

This volume combines a wide variety of primary texts with critical readings, examines the texts within the context of critical debates, explores the ways in which children's literature combines instruction and entertainment, oral and written traditions, words and pictures, fantasy and realism, classics and adaptations, and perspectives on childhood and adult life. It spans a wide range of literary periods, genres, and cultural traditions, and examines how these overlapping forms and genres, diverse influences, and evolving values and attitudes towards children and childhood have shaped the body of literature written for young adults and children.

An Advent Book of Days - Gregory K. Cameron 2021-08-20

An Advent Book of Days tells the stories of all the characters and creatures that make up the Christmas story, with daily prayers and reflections based on their experiences. Fully illustrated in colour, this rich seasonal companion combines the bible, history, art and legend to explore the story of the incarnation. For each day of Advent, we meet a character caught up in the drama of the nativity, from the archangel Gabriel to the ox and ass in the stable. We discover what their portrayal in scripture reveals about them, how they have been understood in history, what folk legends have accrued around them, and what their stories offer for faith and devotion today. This is a book to engage all the senses and the imagination, to be enjoyed slowly and to shed new light on the most famous and familiar story of all.

Following Jesus through the Bible - Peter Phipps
2013-08-21

Using as a starting point Jesus' own claim that the Scriptures spoke about Him, this book traces how He fulfilled the Old Testament promise of a coming Messiah. The Old Testament was like a solid and reliable signpost, while the gospels were the good news of his coming, to be followed by the inspired commentary of the New Testament letters about Messiah. It all ends with a great Messianic celebration.

Unit 1: In The Beginning In this unit, children will discover how God created all that we know in the universe. They will learn that we are created in God's image and are special and valuable. This unit explores the story of Noah and that God wants us to be obedient and faithful just as Noah was. Children will also discover there are seasons in life and we can depend on God through life changes. Unit 2: God Chooses a People Just as God was present with people in Bible times, God is also with us. Children will learn this concept as they explore the calling of Abraham and the beginning of Israel. Children will also realize that God wants us to be generous as they explore the story of Abraham and Lot in Canaan. Through the story of Abraham and Sarah, children will learn that God wants us to be patient; and the story of Isaac and Rebekah teaches that God has a plan for all our lives. Unit 3: Trusting God's Promises Through the account of Jacob and Esau, children will discover that God's love is the same for all people. Continuing with the narrative of the twin brothers and the birthright, children learn that God does not want us to be envious of others -- God is with us even when we do wrong, and because God forgives us, God wants us to forgive others. This unit also explores the story of Elizabeth and Zechariah, and children will discover that we can trust God's promises. The Leader's Guide is easy to teach with specific activities highlighted that require little preparation. Activities come from each of the four sections of the lesson providing a balanced teaching session. Sections are: Arrival Activities; Live God's Word; Bible Story Time; and Sending Forth.
